Re: Extension of Lobbying and Consulting Agreement

Dear Mr. Monfared,

I hope this finds you well. I wanted to take the opportunity to express to you personally how much we appreciate your business as a valued Client of McBride Consulting & Business Development Group. It is our pleasure to provide added value to your organization, and it is my sincere hope that over the course of our time working together you have noted the benefits of our contributions.

With that said, I'm looking forward to continuing a long and fruitful relationship with you as a Client partner of our firm. For your review and consideration, please find enclosed our extension of your lobbying and consulting agreement. As always, our efforts remain focused on achieving your objectives and advancing your business's growth within your market.

Please reach out to me directly with any questions or concerns regarding our proposal. I can be reached at (631) 745-9000 or by email at r.mcbride@mcbrideny.com. On behalf of my entire team, thank you for your trust in our firm and your time and consideration of our extension proposal.

We look forward to our continued working together!

Regards,
